

Mark E Kneppshield is an Executive Vice President with McGriff Insurance Service's Executive Risk Advisors specializing in the placement of cyber liability insurance. Mark works in the planning, design and implementation of cyber liability programs for variety of industry sectors including large municipality, defense, transportation, financial institutions, large retail and hospitality. His work also includes significant claim handling and coverage dispute remediation. Mark began his career as an insurance coverage litigator before joining the insurance brokerage industry 24 years ago as a subject matter expert. Mark holds his Juris Doctor from the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, and his Bachelor of Arts from Washington & Jefferson College.