

Ty Elliott has over 20 years of experience in local government auditing, including more than 17 years as the Chief Audit Executive for the City of College Station, TX. Before that, he served as a Senior Financial Systems Auditor for the City of Atlanta, GA, and held roles in the finance departments of Aurora, CO, and Lehi, UT. Ty has been actively involved with the Brazos Valley Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors, serving as president, vice president, and board member. He is a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), and Certified Government Auditing Professional (CGAP). He holds a Master of Public Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Finance from Brigham Young University.

Ty has contributed to the field through several published articles in Local Government Auditing Quarterly for the Association of Local Government Auditors (ALGA), including:

- The Value of Criteria (Winter 2019), co-authored with Brittany Winters
- Road to Retention – Three Strategies for Small Audit Shops (Summer 2023)
- Mutually Beneficial Employment of Interns (Fall 2023), co-authored with Griffin Moreland
- Navigating the Challenges of Segregation of Duties in Modern ERP Systems (Fall 2024), co-authored with Matthew Ragaglia

Ty has presented at national conferences on various auditing topics, including:

- Using Analytics to Detect Fraud – TAMU Mays School (2011)
- Auditing Street Maintenance – ALGA Conference (2016)
- Threats to the Audit Function & How to Handle Them – MIAA Conference (2017)
- Decoding COSO: Solving the Cube – ALGA Conference (2019)
- The Art of Conducting Risk Assessments – TAMU Bush School (2019)
- Building a Sustainable Audit Function – ALGA Conference (2022)
- A Case for Local Government Auditing – TAMU Bush School (2022)
- How Analytics Transforms Government Teams – IIA Webinar (2024)
- Role Base Access Controls in ERP Systems – ALGA Conference (2025)